

THE SYLLABLE

The syllable is an instrument that guides both the teacher and the student in the learning process. It also allows you to plan the contents of a subject.

Three stylized hearts in purple, blue, and light blue are positioned to the right of the text.

The syllabus is a course schedule that guides the learning path that has been designed. It is capable of showing not only an overview of the course, but also a calendar of the sessions.

